

Course Fees and Registration

Regarding course prices, we structure our fees based on customer service, satisfaction and fun. Let us explain what we mean by this.

Our courses are based on specific course objectives (see our website for these objectives). If after reading these objectives you feel you will benefit by course participation, you find a venue/tour that excites you and a date you can attend, then we ask you send a $150.00 deposit check, per driver, to hold your spot. Send checks to: Blue Sky Adventures, Inc., PO Box 3175, Running Springs, CA 92382.

When you first arrive at the course/tour venue for the morning orientation, we give you your deposit check back. Why does Offroad Teach & Tour Adventures do this? Again, our courses are based on your satisfaction. If at the end of a course you feel that you've learned all the stated objectives and/or had a great tour, then we ask for a course fee of $300. If you do not feel you learned all the stated course objectives and/or did not have a great time touring, then we want nothing. Your satisfaction is everything to us. You may bring your family in your vehicle and cost is still only $300. However, if two or more of you drive during the course, then we ask that each driver pay the course fee. If you do not show up for the course, please understand that we need to cash your deposit check to cover our expenses.

Depending on the venue and amount of trail "touring" we do, each course can be one or two days. We try to squeeze the majority of the instruction in the first day. Subsequent days are primarily devoted to touring the local area, exploring and practicing the skills introduced in day one. We believe that it's just as important to learn ABOUT a local area, as it is to learn off-road driving skills. After all, our company's name is "Off-Road Teach AND Tour Adventures. We want your off-road learning experience to also be an ADVENTURE! If after day one you wish to simply go home and not tour and practice your skills, then that is your choice. Please understand, however, that some new skills are often introduced on subsequent days.

Once we receive your registration form (found as a download from this website – go to either the Discovery or Expedition course pages), and $150 deposit, we will email you complete specifics about the course - places to stay near the off-road areas we intend to drive (motels, campgrounds, etc.), where we will meet each morning, the time we will meet each morning and trails we will explore.

If you have other questions, please don't hesitate to email or call. Again, send your registration form and deposit checks to: Blue Sky Adventures, Inc., PO Box 3175, Running Springs, CA 92382.

Regards,
Bob Wohlers
